

Best Interior Designers is an ongoing lecture series featuring designers of distinction from around the world.

BEST INTERIOR DESIGNERS IN FLORIDA: LINDSAY PUMPA

OCTOBER 21, 2014 LEADING INTERIOR DESIGNERS

One of the best interior designers in Florida right now, Lindsay Pumpa began to make a name within the industry thanks to her creativity and ingenious way to solve problems with originality and style.

Born in Solon – Ohio and graduated at Florida State University in Interior Design, Lindsay characterized in modern design and she makes her mark by blending together unexpected design finishes and textures, while using a contemporary aesthetic. It was through her unique style that she was selected as the lead interior designer for the third annual HGTV Urban Oasis Giveaway, consolidating her status among other interior designers

In 2012, Lindsay fully designed the two-bedroom, two and half bath residence at Paramount Bay where she put her unique style and create a chic and luxurious environment by showcasing cool, monochromatic decor in the residence.

Others Lindsay's fabulous projects was her experience in designing for the interior of the Mandarin Oriental Las Vegas and Trump Ocean Club Panama, projects that enhance, develop and show the evolution of her magnificent ideas.

Lindsay has kept herself busy with the lunch of her own design business, LPumpa Designs, which opened its doors in March 2013. Undoubtedly, Lindsay is one of the Interior Designers with major progression for the next decades and certainly her ideas, creativity and style will keep inspiring other interiors designers in the future.